DBIA-Iowa would like to invite you to attend exciting Lunch and Learn on DIRTT construction products! Come and hear about the new innovative products and processes that DIRTT has to offer to make your projects run smoothly and on time. You will also experience a tour of the new Mercer Zimmerman office, where you will see a wide range of dynamic and adaptable DIRTT products.

We will start the day with a bite to eat, a presentation and conclude with a tour. Please join us as we show you the sustainable DIRTT products!
